Soldier misses home, but even moreso, his lover Ettie

Dear Ettie

The soldier wants to be in Hillsdale sledding with Ettie.

He writes that if she knows a good looking lady, she should know he wants to marry her.

The soldier wants to marry Ettie.

He thanks her for the gift he recieved on New Years Day.

He tells her, "You have my heartfelt thanks for your kindness and remembrance of a Soldier.

He mails Ettie the letter.

In the closing of the letter, he reminds Ettie,

*I am yours
verry frusly*
